1. After consultation with the SMA, Kramer, Manager of the locomotives section of the Reichsbahn, ordered the transfer of 1800 drivers to the repair shops. Kramer's order was confirmed by an SMA order dated 6 December 1946.

50X1-HUM

2. This order was discussed at a meeting of heads of departments held on 16 December 1946. [redacted] the union took exception to this order; as the commanders of booty trains refused to let their drivers go, the order would be to the detriment of normal Reichsbahn services only. [redacted]
